CAPTURE OF COINERS.

An Organized Gang Run Down by Secret Service Agents.

COUNTERFEITING OUTFIT SEIZED.

Roumanian Jews Who Have Been Manufacturing Half Dollars, Quarters and Dimes and Flooding This Section of the Country with the Spurious Coin.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—One of the most gigantic schemes of counterfeiting known to the United States secret service bureau has just been unearthed by its officers, and the ringleaders of a daring band of coiners captured.

Chief W. B. Hazen and Secret Service Officer William J. Burns came quietly into this city yesterday afternoon, and with them as prisoners were two men giving the names of Henry Greenberg and Julius Stein. They were brought here because this city has been used as one of the headquarters of the band. About a week ago five men were arrested here in connection with the case, and are now under bail pending a hearing.

For two or three months past the bureau has been in receipt of complaints from various parts of the eastern country concerning the prevalence of spurious coin, mainly half dollars, quarters and dimes, made of pure silver.

Chief Hazen and Officer Burns immediately set quietly to work on the case and the first result of their investigations was the arrest of the men here. They gave the names of Max Frankel, Moses Rosengarten, Jacob Friedman, Jacob Fineburg and Frank Silberman, all of this city.

It was quickly learned that these men were only part of an organized gang working throughout the country, and the disposition of their cases was held in abeyance until the leaders could be taken. This was accomplished yesterday.

The information which led up to the arrest of Greenberg, who was captured in New York on Tuesday, pointed to Landisville, N. J., as one of the principal operating places, and there they found in the cellar of a house an entire coiners' outfit. It was learned that the house had been rented by one Jacob Stein, and he was traced to Newark, N. J., where he was arrested.

The evidence secured by the bureau reveals a conspiracy unrivalled outside the realms of the dime novel. The band, so far as has been learned, was composed of about twenty, and possibly more men. They were banded together by a series of iron clad and solemn oaths. Names were discarded, and every conspirator was known to the others by a number only. Each man was assigned a special territory in which to dispose of the coin.

Upon the arrest of the five men in Philadelphia recently, the other conspirators fled, and although the arrest of Greenberg and Stein disposed of the most dangerous members of a dangerous band, there are still others to be captured, and they will probably land in the net of the law within a few days.

The men are all Roumanian Jews, and have not been in this country for any great length of time. They are a sturdy looking lot, all big and full-bearded, with the exception of Friedman.

A peculiar feature of the case is that after the men had been arrested information concerning their operations was furnished the United States officials here by a man calling himself David Fierstein, of Landisville, N. J., who was implicated in the matter himself. It is thought that he and Stein are one and the same person.

The principal witness against these men was Kave Reisser, a Russian tailor, who swore that he was taken by Silberman to a house on Washington avenue, below Seventh, where they met Friedman, Rosengarten and Fineburg. They showed him a satchel full of dies, to be used in making coin, and offered to let him into the conspiracy if he would pay them $200. He paid the money, and they then took him to a house in Darby, Pa., where he saw the presses, dies and other paraphernalia used in making the coins. He placed two pieces of silver in the press and made two ten cent pieces.

Fierstein's story is that Rosengarten, Friedman and a man named Braft were brought to his house last July by Reisser. They wanted him to go into partnership with them, and asked him to allow them the use of his cellar to make the coins. He said he would rent it to them and they went away, promising to write, but, he says, they never did so. Afterwards a meeting was arranged for in this city, but as the others had no money Fierstein pawned his wife's watch for $20, and with this the goods were packed and the dies and other materials sent to the Landisville house.

Ministerial Murderer Convicted.

DANVILLE, Ind., Oct 3.—The jury in the case of Rev. William E. Henshaw, on trial for the murder of his wife, rendered a verdict late yesterday afternoon of guilty of murder in the second degree. He was sentenced to imprisonment for life. As the sentence was pronounced the prisoner sat perfectly stolid, and to every appearance was indifferent. His aged parents broke down and wept profusely.

General Miles in Command.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Secretary Lamont issued an order yesterday afternoon detailing General Miles to duty in Washington as general of the army, and General Ruger, now on special duty in Washington, to command of the department of the east, with headquarters in New York.

Harry Wright's Condition.

ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 3.—Drs. Pepper, Boger and Bennett, who are attending the veteran baseball manager, Harry Wright, issued this bulletin last evening: "For the past forty eight hours there has been evidence of liquid effusion in the chest. There occurred from time to time spells of dyspnoea of alarming severity. The operation of paracentesis was performed this afternoon, and a quart of pus was withdrawn. Mr. Wright is much more comfortable since the operation."

Explosion in a Fireworks Factory.

JERSEY CITY, Oct. 3.—An explosion occurred yesterday afternoon in Jacob J. Detwiller's fireworks factory, in the Greenville district. Five employes were injured, all except one of them being boys from 14 to 16 years of age. Following is a list of the sufferers: William Beckel, Carl Falke, Earnest and Clifford Mount and Nicholas Lorbold. The roman candle factory building, in which the explosion occurred, was burned to the ground.

Brazil's President May Resign.

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 3.—The chamber of deputies has rejected the bill for amnesty to the rebels in the department of Rio Grande do Sul. It is believed that the chamber will not accept any such bill, and it is thought that this will lead to the resignation of Dr. Prudente de Moraes as president of the republic.

Probable Murder in Denton.

DENTON, Md., Oct. 3.—The deady body of a colored woman was found in a tenant house near Ridgely yesterday. It is supposed to have been there since Saturday. Murder is suspected. The husband cannot be found. Neighbors say he had threatened to kill her.

Youthful Suicide for Love.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct 3.—Isabel Bottoms, aged 15 years, of Luzerne borough, committed suicide yesterday by taking poison. Unrequited love was the cause.

PRELIMINARY TO DIVORCE.

Mrs. Pabst, Formerly Margaret Mather, Publicly Chastises Her Husband.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 3.—Mrs. Gustav Pabst, formerly Margaret Mather, the actress, created a sensation near their home at Twenty-ninth and Cedar streets yesterday afternoon by striking her husband, a son of the wealthy brewer, several times with a horsewhip. What was the cause of the trouble no one seems to know, but numerous residents in the vicinity were eye witnesses to the whipping, which began in a buggy in which the couple were riding and which ended at the corner of Twenty-fourth and State streets, where Mr. Pabst wrenched the whip from his wife's hand as the latter struck her husband a blow full in the face. Mr. Pabst then threw the whip away.

But the one-sided battle was by no means ended, for she then clenched her fist and planted a blow from the shoulder square on his nose. Then Mr. Pabst moved on at a rapid pace, the woman following, both entering their home together on Cedar street.

Gustav Pabst and Margaret Mather were married in Kenosha in November, 1892, but the wedding was kept a secret for several months, creating a great sensation when it finally became known. The bride soon after left the stage and has since lived quietly with her husband in this city.

The horse was allowed to stand where it was hitched for two or three hours, when the coachman of Mr. Pabst, Sr., came and took it away.

Mrs. Pabst was seen at her home last evening, after repeated attempts by reporters. She said it was all "a cruel, cruel falsehood."

Young Pabst has disappeared, but his father and other friends were out among the newspaper offices last night and visiting correspondents trying to have the story suppressed. One of them said that the horse whipping was done "only in a fit of temper," that there was nothing back of the quarrel, and that Mr. and Mrs. Pabst had always lived peacefully together since their marriage.

Lively Caucuses in Chicago.

CHICAGO Oct. 3.—Bruised, battered and bleeding, the contending city and county factions in yesterday's Republican primaries retired from the field of conflict to take a brief rest preparatory to fighting the battle to a finish in today's convention. Both factions claim victory. Broken heads and blakened eyes in more than a score of primary districts attended the fierceness of the battle waged between the city and county factions for control of the convention and for supremacy in the local party organization. Never before, it is said, in the history of Cook county were such scenes enacted as were witnessed at many of the polling places. Thuggery, bulldozing, rioting, rifling of ballot boxes and wrecking of polling booths was the order of the day. In two precincts the judges and clerks were thrown out and the mob took possession.

The Central Pennsylvania Miners.

PHILIPSBURG, Pa., Oct. 3.—The miners' convention here yesterday, representing the soft coal miners of central and northern Pennsylvania, was attended by upwards of fifty delegates. The Dubois, Punxsutawney and Reynoldsville districts sent the largest delegations. Sentiment as to a suspension if an advance is not granted by the operators is much divided. Miners from regions in competition with the Pittsburg district are a unit in favoring the demand of an advance and the suspension of work if it is not granted, while the delegates from the Clearfield and Beech Creek regions are not disposed to go quite so far. The question was discussed throughout the day, and a conclusion not being reached a night session was held behind closed doors.

Incendiarism to Hide Murder.

ST. LOUIS, Oct 3.—At Twenty-third and Oliver streets, Ignatz Goldmann, a feeble and defenseless old man, was assaulted in a room back of his restaurant, where he lived alone, beaten into insensibility with a flat iron, and then stabbed repeatedly and cut and slashed across the face so as to be rendered almost unrecognizable. Passers by extinguished the flames and had the wounded man taken to a hospital, where he died soon after. The police arrested John and Robert Bernie, twins, aged 35, on suspicion of having committed the crime. Nine men and three women are looked upon with suspicion of complicity.

Ruined by Wheat Speculation.

MOUNT VERNON, Ind., Oct. 3.—First National bank officials say investigation shows that Albert Wade, the absconding assistant cashier, took with him on Monday $13,000 of the banks funds. The total shortage is not yet known, but it is supposed to be about $30,000. He was also treasurer for this county of the Indiana Mutual Building and Loan association, of which he is short in his accounts $15,000. It seems to be the old story of "Chicago wheat."

St. Paul's Trial Trip Postponed.

BOSTON, Oct. 3.—The steamship St. Paul started for a preliminary run yesterday over the official course between Cape Ann and Cape Porpoise, but abandoned the trial because of the bad priming of the boilers. The failure of the boilers to work properly was due to the fact that the water from the Delaware river, with which they were filled before the ship left Philadelphia, was brackish. The official trial will probably take place tomorrow.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

Mrs. Annie Wigginton, 30 years old, committed suicide near Mount Washington, Ky., by hanging herself. Her mind was affected.

Dr. Elliot F. Rogers, instructor in chemistry at Harvard college, was found dead in the college laboratory last night. Probably suicide.

William Leonard shot and fatally wounded Timothy Rowley at Pittsburg because he was discharged by Rowley, whose mill helper he had been.

Colonel Donald Cameron, aged 81, the oldest newspaper man in Tennessee, and at one time prominent in politics, died yesterday at his home in Jackson.

THE REVOLT IN TURKEY

Details of the Armenian Uprising in Constantinople.

A HUNDRED AND FIFTY KILLED.

The Fighting Precipitated by the Effort of Armenians to Prevent a Petition to the Sultan—The Garrison Under Arms and Armenian Stores Closed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct 3.—Five hundred arrests have been made in connection with the recent rioting of Armenians here. The government is greatly alarmed, and the garrison is kept under arms. Trouble among the Armenians of this city has been brewing for a long time past, the bitter feeling against the authorities growing stronger as week after week passed without the adoption by the Turkish government of the scheme of reform in Armenia proposed by the representatives of the powers.

The long smouldering flames of discontent, carefully fanned by the Armenian agitators, have at last broken out. Finally the Armenians determined at all hazards to make an attempt to present a petition to the sultan, through the grand vizier, and a large body of Armenians on Monday marched with this intention towards the palace of the porte. The authorities, in anticipation of trouble, had stationed a strong force of police about the palace, and the other public buildings were also well guarded.

The arrival of the Armenians at the palace was the signal for several encounters between them and the police, during which several Turks and Armenians were killed or wounded. Many Armenians, during the affrays, were thrown to the ground and severely beaten by the Turkish policeman, after which they were securely bound and carted away to prison. One Armenian, after having been terribly beaten with a bludgeon, was shot and killed by a policeman. Two Armenian porters were among those subjected to the wholesale arrests. They showed resistance to the police and were accordingly killed.

The rioting was continued almost throughout the remainder of the day, and so alarmed the government that the garrison was hastily ordered under arms, and has been so ever since, night and day, the troops being rigorously confined to barracks.

The students took an active part in the rioting. A crowd of these young men, during a fight with a squad of police, killed two of the Turkish officers and wounded a number of others.

The arresting of the Armenians went on all day Monday and Tuesday, and was accompanied by more bloodshed, several Armenians, who resisted attempts to take them into custody, being killed while fighting the police. In addition, eight Armenians were killed within the precincts of the ministry of police, where, besides many persons were wounded.

The Armenian quarter of the city is today deserted and quiet as the grave. This is the quarter which usually presents the scene of greatest animation and life, the shops and great bazars attracting throngs of chattering traders. The authorities have closed the shops and peremptorily forbid the gathering of groups in the streets of the quarter, and to insure the observance of this order the streets are constantly patrolled by military.

On Tuesday the carriages which were conveying the ministers of the interior, of foreign affairs and of the police to the council, which was convened to consider measures for suppressing the disturbance, were pierced with bullets as they passed through the streets, fired from arms in the hands of the insurgent citizens. The public officials in the carriages escaped injury from the flying bullets, so far as has been learned. Many passers-by in the streets were not so fortunate, and the latest accounts of the number killed and wounded place it at eighty.

With regard to the death of Scrivet Bey, one of the officers who were killed in Monday's riot at the Patriarchate, the following details are learned: It is alleged that he called the Armenian bearer of the petition which it was sought to present to the grand vizier, "Ghiaour." This is equivalent to saying "infidel dog," and is the term of approbrium used by the Turks toward those who do not follow the prophet Mahomet. The Armenian retorted to this, and the quarrel increased in heat until the shooting began.

It is reported that a number of Armenians broke into the law courts of the city during the disorder and killed two judges. The murderers were recognized, and were subsequently arrested.

The Turkish government, in its efforts to calm the apprehension experienced on all sides, has sent a quieting circular to the envoys of the different foreign countries. At the palace the utmost consternation is said to prevail, and every precaution has been taken to suppress further outbreaks upon the part of the dissatisfied Armenians.

There is no doubt that the demonstration which precipitated the disorders has been for a long time in course of arrangement. This is shown by the fact that before the outbreak the foreign ambassadors in the city had received a number of anonymous letters announcing that the Armenians intended in a short time to make a pacific demonstration. The police also had ample warning of the intended action of the Armenians, and had made preparations to prevent it.

Confirmed by Minister Terrell.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Secretary Olney received the following cablegram from United States Minister Terrell, at Constantinople: "On Monday several hundred Armenians marched on the porte, professedly to ask redress of grievances. The patriarch tried to prevent it. A conflict occurred between Armenians and police, and probably about sixty Turks and Armenians were killed, among others a Turkish major, and many wounded. The Armenians carried pistols. On Tuesday several more were killed Tuesday night eighty were killed and several hundred imprisoned. The porte had notice of the demonstration which they say was organized by leaders of Hunchagist revolutionists whom they have captured. Much terror exists. I think the porte will be able to resist fanaticism."

Fatally Shot at a Dance.

DUNBAR, Pa., Oct. 3.—Mitchell Taylor, a colored boy, aged 17 years, employed at the Morrell Coke works, was shot on Monday night at a dance by James Robinson, also colored, and died Tuesday night. Jealousy was the cause.

THE LAUNCH OF THE BROOKLYN

The Latest Addition to Uncle Sam's Speedy War Vessels.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—The great cruiser Brooklyn, which is to add to the navy of the United States one of the fastest and most powerful vessels afloat, received her baptism of wine and water yesterday afternoon. She was christened by Miss Ida Schieren, the only daughter of Brooklyn's mayor.

The launch differed from others of recent years of so much moment, in that it was characterized by much less pomp and ceremony. Secretary of the Navy Herbert, occupied with engagements in Alabama, sent word that he could not be present, and, while the guests from Washington included several persons of prominence, their numbers were limited.

The general public, who usually furnish to the scene a background of cheering thousands, were not so numerously represented as heretofore, but the actual spectacle of the launch of a huge war vessel was as strikingly in evidence as ever, and those who did gaze upon the Brooklyn's swift plunge into the stream beheld a sight that will long linger in their memories.

Death of General O. M. Poe.

DETROIT, Oct. 3.—General O. M. Poe, the well known United States engineer, died suddenly at his residence in this city yesterday, aged 63. He had been ill for several days, but the serious nature of his condition had not been announced. General Poe rendered valuable services to the marine interests of the lakes. Some of the most important light stations, including the famous Standard Rock light, have been designed and constructed by him. He also constructed the new and famous lock at the Soo. General Poe had general charge of all river and harbor improvements, and was regarded throughout the country as a very able engineer.

Princeton Wins Its First Game.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 3.—The Princeton university team played its first game yesterday afternoon, and football enthusiasts from all the colleges were on hand to get a line on the Princeton players. The game was against the Elizabeth Athletic club. The cranks were treated to a genuine surprise by the fine, snappy game put up by Princeton. Two twenty minute halves were played, and Princeton scored fourteen points in the first and twenty-four in the second. They lost the ball on downs but three times.

St. Louis Lowers Her Record.

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct. 3.—The American liner St. Louis arrived here from New York yesterday afternoon, after a remarkably fast passage, cutting her own record down about five hours, beating the record of the Paris, of the same line, by about 3½ hours, and failing by only 2 hours and 30 minutes to equal the record of 6 days, 10 hours and 55 minutes, which is held by the Hamburg-American liner Fuerst Bismarck. The St. Louis' time of passage was 6 days, 13 hours and 23 minutes.

Murderer Lynched by Cowboys.

UKIAH, Cal., Oct. 3.—News has reached here of the murder in Round Valley of J. W. Vinton and the lynching of Jack Littleton, the murderer, on Saturday last. After shooting Vinton, Littleton escaped to his cabin, where he surrendered to officers. While being taken to jail at Yreka the posse was met by a mob of masked cowboys, who compelled the officers to move on. Littleton was then shot and afterwards hanged.

To Prosecute Ohio Prize Fighters.

HARRISBURG, Oct 3.—Governor Hastings issued a requisition yesterday for the return to Pennsylvania of James Smith, "Squirrel" Finnerty and "Kid" Lloyd, of Youngstown, O., to answer in the Mercer courts to charges of prize fighting. Ohio prize fighters make it a practice to cross the river from Youngstown into Mercer county to engage in fights. Warrants were issued for the three men, and they are now in jail at Youngstown.

No Hope for General Mahone.

WASHINGTON, Oct 3.—At midnight there had been no material change in General Mahone's condition. He sleeps the greater part of the time, and is conscious only at intervals. No hope is held out by his physician, who says the general may remain in his present state for a day or more.

Father Wagner Confesses.

ST JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 3.—It is announced that Father Wagner has confessed everything and asks permission to marry Maude Steidel, the girl he is charged with having abducted. His confession was made to Sheriff Andriano and the girl's uncle. No action has yet been taken by the relatives.

Disastrous Storm on Briton's Coast.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Tuesday's storm on the British coast left destruction in its path. Altogether nineteen steamships and large sailing vessels, and twenty-nine smaller craft are reported to have been lost. Although only twenty-four lives are known to have been lost it is feared that many more sailors and fisherman have lost their lives, as the coasts of Devonshire and Somersetshire are strewn with wreckage.

Three Killed by a Train.

ESSEX, Ont., Oct. 3.—William and Thomas Mooney, aged 19 and 17 years, respectively, and Dennis Burke, 21 years old, were instantly killed, and Miss Addie Jones and Ed Mooney, the boys' father, were badly injured at the Michigan Central crossing here. The party were in a wagon driving to the fair grounds. They drove on the tracks before they saw the approaching express.

NO PUGILISM IN TEXAS

Corbett and Fitzsimmons Knocked Out by Lawmakers.

PRIZE FIGHTING MADE A FELONY.

The Sweeping Measure Passes Both Houses in Exactly Three Hours After Its Introduction, Having a Total of But Six Votes Against It.

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 3.—There will be no prize fight at Dallas Oct. 31 between Corbett and Fitzsimmons. This fact was settled yesterday afternoon by the Texas legislature in exactly three hours. The two committees, one in the senate and the other in the house, gave an audience to the Dallas attorneys all the morning to ascertain their objections and protests to the passage of the law.

After hearing the gentlemen until noon the committees adjourned. In the afternoon, when the two houses met at 3 o'clock, both committees were ready to report, and the senate bill was very promptly considered. From the time the bill was placed before the senate until it finally passed it was exactly fifty-five minutes. During this time Senator Dean opposed the bill and Senator Lascar spoke in its favor. These were the only two gentlemen who spoke on the bill, the balance satisfying themselves by voting. The vote on the final passage of the bill was 27 ayes and 1 nay, Dean being the negative voter.

The bill was immediately sent over to the house, and at 4 o'clock that body began discussing it, substituting the senate bill for the house bill. After several gentlemen had spoken of the bill and the emergency feature, pro and con, a final vote was reached at 6 o'clock, precisely, and the bill passed the house by a vote of 110 to 5. Thus, within three hours, did the Texas legislature forever put an end to prize fighting in Texas.

On Tuesday it would have been impossible to have passed a bill with an emergency clause. There were only ninty-two members present then, and of that number fifteen were opposed to the emergency clause, and it was necessary to have eighty-six votes to carry it. The administration forces readily saw that the minority would defeat them if the matter came to a vote, so they wired all their friends to come here immediately, and then sat about killing time until their forces could arrive. They had eighty-two only on Tuesday night, but the absentees came flocking in on yesterday's trains. Each additional arrival added to the administration forces and when everything was arranged the rush for the vote was made.

The fight managers were confused at the way the solons swarmed in, and practically gave up the fight by 3 o'clock in the afternoon. It was almost a certainty in the morning that the Populists would be called over to the Dallas side of the question, but the plan fell through, and they voted with the administration forces, which decided the matter. Governor Culberson's friends consider it a great victory for him, and lost no opportunity to congratulate his excellency on the outcome of one of the hottest and, it might be safely termed, one of the bitterest, as well as shortest, political fights ever brought up in the Lone Star state on any one single man.

The bill that will prohibit prize fighting in Texas in the future reads as follows:

Section 1—Any person who shall voluntarily engage in a pugilistic encounter between man and man, or a fight between a man and a bull, or any other animal, for money or other thing of value, or for any championship, or upon the result of which any money or anything of value is bet or wagered, or to see which any admission fee is charged, either directly or indirectly, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than two or more than five years.

Section 2—By the term "pugilistic encounter," as used in this act, is meant any voluntary fight or personal encounter, by blows by means of the fists or otherwise, whether with or without gloves, between two men for money or for any championship, or for any other thing of value or upon the result of which any money or anything of value is bet or wagered.

Section 3—That all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 4—The fact that there is now no adequate penalty against prize fighting, or pugilism, or against fights between man and beasts, creates an imperative public necessity and emergency requiring the suspension of the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three separate days, and that this law should be effective and be in force from this passage, and it is hereby so enacted.

In an interview last night Dan Stewart, manager of the contest, said: "I will surely bring the contest off on the date advertised at a point outside of Texas, of easy access. Due notice will be given."

Will Probably Fight in Mexico.

LAREDO, Tex., Oct. 3.—The representatives of the Florida Athletic club have completed arrangements with the owners of a bull pen across the river in New Laredo, Mex., for an option of eight days' duration, the object being to secure a place for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. The consent of the city authorities of New Laredo has been secured to permit the fight to take place. All that now remains is the approval of the governor of the state (Tamaulipas), who is now being communicated with.

Atlanta Exposition in Full Swing.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 3.—The exposition is now in full swing. The exhibits are in shape and the city has made the arrangements necessary for the comfort of visitors. At the hotels rates range from $1.50 to $5 per day on the American plan, and from seventy five cents to $5 per day on the European plan. Many private houses, however, are open to the public, and in the best parts of the city there are hundreds of rooms in private houses to be had for seventy-five cents a day, some of these houses being located on Peachtree street, the fashionable thoroughfare of Atlanta.

How To Use Cottolene

the new shortening, like all other things must be rightly used if you wish the best results. Never, in any recipe, use more than two-thirds as much Cottolene as you used to use of lard. Never put Cottolene in a hot pan. Put it in when cold and heat it with the pan. Be careful not to burn Cottolene. To test it, add a drop of water; if hot enough, it will pop. Cottolene, when rightly used, delights everyone. Get the genuine, sold everywhere in tins, with trade-marks—"Cottolene" and steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—on every tin. Made only by

WICKED LIU PING CHANG.

The Corrupt Chinese Viceroy Said to Be Responsible For Missionary Massacres.

Liu Ping Chang, who is regarded as measurably responsible for the late massacre of Christian missionaries in China, and who is said to have been commissioned by the Chinese government to investigate and "whitewash" himself, was the viceroy of the province of Szechuen, in which the principal outrages were perpetrated.

Though Liu Ping Chang has long been prominent in Chinese politics and governmental circles, it is only within a few months that he has become famous, or rather infamous, outside of China. He belongs to a distinguished family of central China, and is one of the richest and ablest but most unscrupulous politicians in the realm. He has held a number of great state positions, in every one of which he was distinguished for corruption, rapacity and avarice. It is said that he early displayed his genius for corruption by bribing the school examiners to give him a much higher rating than that to which he was entitled. He is a man of quite unusual education and is a member of the Honan Literati and the Han-Lin college, which include all the great Chinese scholars.

The viceroyalty of Szechuen, over which he ruled, is situated in the west of China, under the so called wall of Tibet, and is said to have a population of 90,000,000, and contains at least five cities with a population of 1,000,000 and upward each, and at least 30 cities of the second and third classes. The administration of the political affairs of this vast and populous province is one of the richest plums in the imperial pie, and it is said pays the viceroy in salary and perquisites the enormous sum of $7,000,000 annually.

Under Liu Ping Chang's abominable misgovernment of the province the Christian missionaries have suffered terribly. Prior to his administration the missions were reasonably prosperous and comparatively free from annoyance and persecution. He countenanced and approved the native opposition to them, pursuing a policy of persecution which culminated in the awful butcheries which have shocked the world.

Mistress of Style.

An article in a periodical calls attention to the degree of M. S.—Mistress of Style—as that most coveted by all women, outranking, at least so far as admiration is concerned, all the A. M.'s and Ph. D.'s in existence. The statement leads back to the old query. Do college girls and other women given to intellectual exercise care for such mundane matters as looks and clothing? It may safely be asserted that they do. There may be no definite, outspoken "views" upon the matter, but the principle that a woman, to make the most of her opportunities, be they intellectual or otherwise, must both look and dress just as well as she can is universal. Mrs. May Wright Sewall herself wouldn't dream of facing her national council in a last year's bonnet. The day of the blue stockinged and thick umbrellaed reformer is past. Both philanthropical and college women are nowadays as conspicuous for grace of body as for grace of mind.—Chicago Post.

His Logic.

Sunday School Boy—Isn't there lots of life in ginger, teacher?

Teacher—Yes.

"And bread is supposed to be the staff of life, teacher?"

"Yes, my boy."

"Well, then, it has occurred to me that perhaps Methuselah lived on gingerbread."—Yonkers Statesman.

It Soothes Him.

After a man has pounded on the door for half an hour it makes him feel pleasant to be asked by his wife if he wants to come in.—Los Angeles Express.

It May Do As Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe Kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to the cure of all Kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Ely's Cream Balm has completely cured me of catarrh when everything else failed. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results. —Alfred W. Stevens, Caldwell, Ohio. Price of Cream Balm is 50 cents.

THE PRETENDER OUT OF IT.

The Duke of Orleans Abandons His Campaign For the French Throne.

It is announced that the Duke of Orleans, pretender to the throne of France, recognizing the futility of fighting the republic, has decided to abandon the royalist propaganda, close the payment of subsidies to royalist newspapers and close the Paris offices of the royalist committee. There is little to gratify the innate love of mankind for deeds of dauntless gallantry in this exiled and wandering prince renouncing a destroyed throne, which he could but feebly hope to recover, but it is perhaps of more than passing interest, as it removes the last royalist obstruction, however futile, which the past has left in the pathway of the third French republic.

DUKE OF ORLEANS.

Louis Philippe, Duc d'Orleans, is a son of the late Comte de Paris and a great-grandson of Louis Philippe, the King Bourgeois, from whom by virtue of descent he based his claim to the French throne. He was born at York House, Twickenham, England, in 1869. His mother was Princess Marie Isabella, daughter of the Duc de Montpellier. Born in exile, he was the heir to a political inheritance of a purely platonic nature. Without knowledge or experience in politics, without standing in the high French aristocracy, which could not forget or forgive his bourgeois origin, without moral or material support from the rich bourgeois who constituted the stronghold of his great-grandfather, King Louis Philippe, and unknown to the mass of French people, except possibly for two incidents, which were not creditable to him, the young pretender was ill equipped in his hopeless task of re-establishing the Orleanist dynasty in the face of the growing popularity and stability of the republic. He wisely therefore throws up the royal sponge.

The first of the two incidents referred to occurred when he attained his majority in 1890. In flagrant violation of the law expelling his family from France, he went to Paris and made a silly attempt to force his service in the army. The next was his scandalous peregrinations in the various capitals of Europe in the wake of the exotic prima donna Mme. Melba, whom he attended in the disguise of her valet, and his subsequent appearance as corespondent in a divorce suit brought by the diva's husband.

The Comte de Paris, father of the duke, served for a time during the rebellion on General McClellan's staff and later wrote one of the ablest and most comprehensive commentaries that have ever been published on the American civil war.

The Submarine Detector.

When the sinker trailed at the bottom of the sea approaches a mass of metal—a lost anchor, a parted iron chain, a broken telegraph cable; still more, a sunken ironclad—the electric indicator in the mahogany case on shipboard sounds more or less loudly, according to the nearness of the sinker to the submerged mass, and so the position of the latter can be pretty accurately ascertained before divers are sent down.

Much time wasted in painful gropings in the dark by the divers under the special difficulties of their condition may thus be avoided. The submarine detector was primarily designed to enable warships to discover anchored torpedoes, and the connection established by the sinker was intended also to serve as a means of firing in safety a torpedo discovered by the "detector."—Chambers' Journal.

Condemned.

"Here is a cigar," said the dealer, "that I would like you to give a trial."

"All right," said Watts. "Hand it over."

It was handed over.

"What do you think of it?" asked the dealer.

"It doesn't deserve a trial," said Watts. "It ought to be lynched."—Indianapolis Journal.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and ends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.

A Large Attendance of Delegates Expected—Programme for the Several Sessions.

The district convention of the Young Men's Christian Association will meet at 2:30 to-morrow afternoon, in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church. Large delegations will be present from Newburgh, Port Jervis, Poughkeepsie, Kingston, Hudson and other places in the district.

The session will be opened by a song service, conducted by W. W. Clark, followed by a bible study by H. B. Woodward. The address of welcome will be made by Mr. J. E. Mills, president of the association, and the response by Mr. Jordan Phillips, of Hudson.

A reception will be held at the association's rooms from 5:30 to 7:30, at which a banquet will be served. Mayor Stansbury, Supt. Tuthill, the Board of Directors and others will be present.

In the evening at 7:30, there will be a mass meeting at the First Presbyterian Church, at which Col. A. S. Bacon will speak, and to which every body is invited. The public will be welcomed at all sessions of the convention.

Those who entertain delegates need not expect them to supper to-morrow, because of the reception, which is in charge of the ladies of the various churches.

The programme of the convention's session is as follows:

FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 4TH.

At the First Presbyterian Church.

7 30—Song service and bible study, Jordan Phillips, Hudson.

8.00—Report of the district work.

At Chapel of First Presbyterian Church.

9.00—Devotional service, E. P. Brown, Pine Bush.

9 30—Special features of the work for the past year, by delegates.

10.00—The physical work, A. H. Fish, Poughkeepsie.

10.20—The social work, Wm. P. Mapes, Newburgh.

10.40—The educational work, Frank B. Tuthill, Catskill.

11 00—The spiritual work, W. H. Coonrod, Port Jervis.

11 20—Why young men do not join the Association more generally, and why so many leave after being a member for a short time, Frank Mastereon, Middletown.

11 50—Announcements.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 5.

At Chapel of First Presbyterian Church.

2 00—Devotional service. A. H. Wardle, Poughkeepsie.

2 20—Paper on bible study. Don. O. Shelton, New York; song on the bible, by Mrs. O. H. Sweezy, Middletown.

3 00—The claims of the association on the mothers and sisters. Mrs. W. I. Dutcher, Nyack.

3 50—How the young people's societies and the Young Men's Christian Association can aid each other. E. W. Babcock, Port Jervis.

4.20—Work for boys. L. W. Barnes, Poughkeepsie.

4 50—A summer camp. Arthur Minty, Newburgh.

5 10—Question drawer. Conducted by George A. Sanford, Newburgh.

At the close of this session Mr. S. F. Dudley will conduct a conference for members of the Boys' Branches present.

SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 5

At the North Street Congregational Church.

7.30—Song service and devotional bible study.

8 00—Address—The Railroad Work in the Young Men's Christian Association. George A. Warburton, of New York.

SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 6.

At the First Baptist Church.

9.15—Consecration service, S. F. Dudley, of New York.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 6.

3 00—Young men's meeting at First Congregational Church.

Boys' meeting at Second Presbyterian Church, conducted by E. Winchester Howell, of Poughkeepsie.

Women's meeting at First Baptist Church, conducted by Miss Clara G. Seymour, secretary Y. W. C. A., Poughkeepsie.

Railroad men's meeting at North Street Congregational Church, conducted by Mat Turney, of Oneonta.

SUNDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 6.

7 30—Union services will be held in the First Congregational Church, Second Presbyterian and St. Paul's M. E. Church, and will be followed by a farewell service in the First Congregational Church, led by State Secretary Hall.

UNIMPEACHABLE EVIDENCE FROM A BROOKLYN OFFICIAL.

Munyon Relieved Him, Cured Him of Rheumatism in a Few Hours.

Judge Nue, whose popularity in Brooklyn was demonstrated by the immense majorities by which he was elected, and a gentleman of unimpeachable character, in speaking of Professor Munyon's, says: "I consider Munyon's Rheumatism Cure the best in the world. When I began to use his remedy I was unable to walk without the aid of crutches at times; this had been going on for nine years, and the day before I began using it I could not get up the steps to the court room. After taking a few doses I was immediately relieved, and in three days was completely cured."

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure rheumatism in any part of the body. Acute or muscular rheumatism cured in from one to five days. It never fails to cure sharp, shooting pains in the arms, legs, sides, back or breast, or soreness in any part of the body in from one to three hours. It is guaranteed to promptly cure lameness, stiff and swollen joints, stiff back and all pains in the hips and loins. Chronic rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago or pain in the back is speedily cured.

Munyon's Homeopathic Home Remedy Company, of Philadelphia, put up specifics for nearly every disease, which are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25 cents a bottle.

Those who are in doubt as to the nature of their disease should address Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch street, Philadelphia, giving full symptoms of their disease. Professor Munyon will carefully diagnose the case and give you the benefit of his advice absolutely free of all charge. The remedies will be sent to any address on receipt of retail price.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

FOR THE TEMPLE CUP.

Cleveland Wins the First Game of the Series from Baltimore.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 3.—About 7,000 people witnessed the opening game between the Baltimores and the Cleveland in the Temple cup series here yesterday. The weather was perfect, the air being just cool enough to put life into the players. The game was full of snap and ginger from start to finish, the fielding being sharp on both sides, though the visitors make a better showing in the score. Young was in the box for the home team, while McMahon handled the ball for the visitors.

The ice was broken in the fifth inning when McGarr drove a corking single to left field. He was followed by Young with a safe infield hit. Burkett's clever sacrifice advanced both runners, and McGarr scored on McKean's fly to Gleason. Baltimore tied the score in the sixth on McGraw's hit over third, Keeler's sacrifice, Jennings' fly out to center and McGarr's fumble of Kelley's hot hit. Cleveland made another in the sixth on Tebeau's infield hit, Zimmer's scratch single and Blake's double to left field fence.

Baltimore went two better in the eighth. McGraw hit to left, advanced on Keeler's out, and scored on Jennings' single. Kelley's single advanced Jennings to third and he scored on Brodie's force out of Kelley at second. Cleveland got another in the same inning on Tebeau's double and Blake's single. After Baltimore had made one in the ninth on doubles by Robinson and McGraw, the home team clinched the game with two runs made on a double by Burkett, and singles by McKean, Childs, McAleer and Zimmer. The final run was made after two men were out, leaving the score 5 to 4 in favor of Cleveland.

McKean, McGraw and Kelley carried off the honors at the bat and McKean, Young and Jennings in fielding.

IT WAS A CHINESE TRICK.

Viceroy Liu Was Degraded Before Great Britain's Demand.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Sir Halliday McCartney, counsellor of the Chinese legation here, referring to the acceptance by China of the ultimatum of Great Britain, has made a statement to the effect that the punishment of the viceroy of Szechuan for failing to protect the missionaries in his district was decided upon before the ultimatum was presented, and that the Chinese minister in London received notice of the issuing of the decree at 2 p. m. on Sunday.

It is understood in official circles here that the degradation of the viceroy of Szechuan by no means settles the matter in dispute between Great Britain and China.

It is added that the action of China does not affect the possible claims for indemnities and the demands for reforms made by Great Britain.

Professor R. E. K. Douglass has written a letter to the Times, in which he says that Viceroy Liu Ping Chang was degraded last November, and it is now thought that the recent action of the Chinese government is nothing more than a trick to deceive Great Britain.

Catholic Archbishops in Conference.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The archbishops of the Catholic church, representing the chief authority in actual church work, held a meeting at the Catholic University yesterday. It was their first assemblage since the memorable meeting in Philadelphia a year or more ago. There were present Archbishops Williams, Elder, Corrigan, Hennessy, Feehan, Janssen, Ryan and Kain. Archbishop Katzer sent a delegate to act for him. The absentees were Archbishops Riordan, Chappelle, Gross and Ireland. Cardinal Gibbons was present, as he is archbishop of the Baltimore diocese, in addition to his higher office. The meeting was secret, and those present were not inclined to make public the results.

Another Kentucky Feud.

HARLAN, Ky., Oct. 3.—News has been received from Straight Creek to the effect that war is again renewed between the Belcher and Gross factions, and that Sampson Beck was shot and killed on Saturday by one of the Belchers. It is feared that the governor will have to be called upon for troops to help suppress this feud, which has been going on for three months.

English Forger Must Go Back.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—A warrant was issued from the state department yesterday for the surrender to the English authorities of Albert Dudley, held in New York by a commissioner for forgery committed in England.

French Spies in Germany.

BERLIN, Oct. 3.—Acting upon information received the authorities of Cologne have taken into custody several additional persons who are charged with being connected with what seems to be a thoroughly organized attempt to spy upon different fortified positions in Germany. No details of the arrests have been furnished up to the present, as the affair is being thoroughly investigated by the military authorities here and elsewhere. It is said, however, that the parties arrested at Cologne are either French officers or men in the employ of the French government.

McKeever Defeats Valentine.

MASPETH, N. Y., Oct. 3.—The second boxing show of the Empire Athletic club, held at Long Island City, furnished those interested an opportunity to see another international contest. A good crowd embraced the chance afforded them of seeing Arthur Valentine, England's lightweight champion, try conclusions with Charley McKeever, Philadelphia's pet boxer. The attendance was not near as large as on the opening night, but those who were present saw some lively contests. The McKeever-Valentine event was hotly contested for seventeen rounds, and then Valentine was knocked down and out and McKeever was declared the victor. Horace Leeds has challenged the winner.

of Onondaga county.

For Judge of the Court of Appeals,
JOHN D. TELLER,
of Cayuga county.

SENATORIAL.

For Senator,
GEORGE DICKEY,
of Rockland.

JUDICIARY.

For Justices of the Supreme Court,
MARTIN J. KEOGH,
of Westchester county.
ALMET F. JENKS,
of Kings county.
JAMES W. COVERT, of Queens county.

The Department of Public Instruction is about to send out blanks for the school census, which, under the new education act, is to be taken this month and every second year thereafter.

The fight between the Shepard faction and the regular Democracy of Kings county was carried into the judiciary convention for this district, in Brooklyn, yesterday, and two sets of candidates for the Supreme Court were nominated. The regular organization desired to nominate Almet F. Jenks, of Brooklyn, for one of the judgeships. He was not satisfactory to the Shepardites. The delegates from the rural counties, anxious for harmony, appointed a committee to confer with the Shepardites to see if an agreement could not be reached. Several hours were spent in trying to negotiate terms of peace, but nothing could be done, for the regular Democrats were determined to stand by Mr. Jenks and the Shepardites would not have him under any circumstances. The convention then nominated Almet F Jenks, of Kings county; James W. Covert, of Queens county, and Martin J. Keogh, of Westchester county, for Justices of the Supreme Court. The Shepardites endorsed the nomination of Mr. Keogh and named John A. Taylor and J. Warren Green as their other candidates,

There is no disguising the fact that a division of the Democratic vote in Kings county will insure the election of at least two of the Republican candidates for the Supreme Court bench. The situation is most unfortunate, but there are reasons for hoping that the good sense and calmer judgment of Democratic leaders, who are not blinded by factional hate, will be able to avert the political suicide which seems to have been determined on yesterday.

OUR CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR

Hon. George Dickey, of Nyack, who was nominated for State Senator by the Democrats of this district, yesterday, is undoubtedly the best and strongest candidate who could have been named to make the canvass against Senator Lexow. In private and in public life he is all that Mr. Lexow is not. Modest and unassuming, success does not puff him up with an overweening sense of his own importance, nor is he eaten up with egotism or preyed upon by vanity. He has served the people of Rockland county in many official capacities and never found a forty minute speech necessary to convince his constituents that he had not been false to the trust imposed in him or recreant to his duty.

Mr. Dickey is one of the plain people. In early manhood he worked in his father's shipyard, but for many years has been engaged in the dock building business. Always a Democrat, he has for years taken an active interest in party affairs. For six years he represented Orangetown in the Rockland county Board of Supervisors. He was elected to the Assembly in 1885 and re-elected the next year by a greatly increased majority. His legislative record was a most creditable one. He served on several important committees, looked closely after the interests of his constituents and won the confidence, regard and esteem of his associates in the Legislature. In 1894, he was elected Sheriff of Rockland county and so administered that important office that he is universally conceded to have been the best Sheriff the county has had in years.

Mr. Dickey is popular with all classes and conditions of men and his modest worth, blameless life and high sense of duty have won him the confidence and regard of all who know him. He will receive the united and hearty support of the Democrats of the district and will be voted for by many Republicans, who feel that it is a disgrace that the district should be represented for another term by "little Lexow," who has no character and no individuality of his own, who sneezes whenever Platt takes snuff and who unquestioningly obeys every command of the party bosses.

A GREAT RAILWAY BLOCKED.

Erie Trains at a Standstill on Account of a Wreck at Otterkill.

Traffic on the Eastern Division of the Erie was practically suspended this afternoon on account of a freight wreck at Otterkill, 1½ miles east of Goshen, which blocked both tracks.

The particulars of the wreck have not been obtained except that it was an east bound freight train and occurred about noon.

East bound passenger train 6 lies at Goshen, and west bound train 11 at Greycourt. The latter train has on board Comstock's Minstrels, who are billed for the Casino to night.

What

You want of a medicine is that it shall do you good—purify and enrich your blood, throw off that tired feeling, and give you health, strength, courage and ambition.

Hood's

Sarsaparilla is the only true blood purifier prominently in the public eye today, and it meets these requirements perfectly. This is proved by the testimony of thousands of people. Hood's

Sarsaparilla

Builds up the nerves by feeding them on pure blood, creates an appetite by toning the digestive organs, overcomes That Tired Feeling by giving vitality to the blood, and gives sweet refreshing sleep. You may realize that Hood's Sarsaparilla this by giving it a fair trial. Insist upon Hood's and only Hood's. $1; six for $5.

Does

THE VETERANS' REUNION.

Ex-soldiers and Sailors Meet at Mannerchor Park—Distinguished Citizens Present—Interesting Addresses.

The first annual reunion of the veteran soldiers and sailors of Orange county was held at Mannerchor Park in this city, to-day. The attendance of veterans was larger than even the projectors of the affair anticipated, many being present from Sullivan, Ulster and Sussex counties, as well as Orange.

Gen. C. H. VanWyck and wife arrived on train 38; Department Commander A. J. Atkinson and Senior Vice-Commander Gen. Hull Grant arrived on train 9 and were met at the depot by a delegation of veterans headed by the Wurtsboro Cornet Band. Carriages were in waiting for the distinguished guests and conveyed them to Mannerchor Park.

Secretary of State John Palmer, an ex Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, was a guest of Dr. Talcott at the State Hospital, last night, and a carriage was sent for him and brought him to the park.

Col. Cantine, of Newburgh, and Col. W. D. Dickey, of the same city, marched in the procession of veterans to the park.

Upon the arrival of the procession at Mannerchor Park, a national salute of forty-four guns was fired by the battery attached to Gen. Lyon Post.

The proceedings were inaugurated by a prayer by Chaplain Jesse Shafer, of Ellis Post, of Newburgh.

Past Commander A. B. Wheeler, of Gen. Lyon Post, then delivered an address of welcome, after which the visitors were invited to partake of the good things which had been spread upon tables about the park.

Addresses were then delivered by Department Commander A. J. Atkinson, Secretary of State John Palmer, Gen. C. H. VanWyck, Col. George Cantine, Col. Wm. D Dickey, Maj. J, W. Benedict and others.

First Graduate of Thrall Hospital Training School for Nurses.

Miss Mary C. Smith, the first graduate of the Thrall Hospital Training School for Nurses, will receive her diploma at 4 o'clock, this afternoon.

The Board of Managers, in honor of the event, which is of no small importance in the hospital's history, have invited Mrs. Thrall, the Medical and Advisory Boards and representatives of the city papers to be present. The diploma will be presented by Dr. Smiley, President of the Medical Board; Dr. Pillsbury will read a poem; Mrs. Sliter, President of the Hospital Board, will make an address, and Mr. George H. Decker, attorney for the Hospital, is also expected to make a brief address.

East Main Street Paving Begun.

Messrs. Orr Brothers, this morning, began excavating on East Main street for the new pavement. They commenced at Academy avenue and will work towards the railroad tracks, so that, if Providence don't favor the city officials, one of the worst spots in the city will be paved whether the balance of Main street, and Wickham avenue are paved or not.

American Apples in the English Market.

American apples, in sound condition and of good color, are selling in Glasgow at from $2 60 to $5.14 a barrel. FIREMEN'S DAY IN GOSHEN.

The Annual Parade of the Department a Great Success—Ten Companies in Line—Crowds of Spectators—Entertaining the Visiting Firemen.

From Our Goshen Correspondent

There is an unusually large attendance at the Goshen fire parade, this afternoon Large numbers of visitors are continually arriving via the Erie and trolley roads, while our rural residents have been drifting in since sunrise. A few also drop in occasionally by freight. The visiting companies have all arrived. They were met at the depot by the various home companies and conducted to their rooms, where they were regaled with sandwiches and coffee as a "bracer."

Promptly at 1 o'clock the companies assembled in their respective truck houses, and at 1:30 the parade started in the following order:

Platoon of Police.
Department Engineers.
24th Separate Co Band.
Ontario Hose Co., No. 5. Middletown.
Waverly Cornet Band, Monticello.
Neversink Hose Co., Port Jervis.
Goshen Cornet Band.

Elliott Hook and Ladder Co.
Erie Cornet Band, Port Jervis.
Excelsior Hose Co., Port Jervis.
Florida Cornet Band.
Dikeman Hose Co.
Board of Trustees in Carriages.
Citizens and Guests in Carriages.

After the parade the visitors were dined as follows:

Neversink Hose Co., of Port Jervis, and Ontario Hose Co., of Middletown, guests of Cataract E and H. Co., at St. Elmo and Union House; Goodwill H. and L. Co., of Warwick, and Elliott H. and L. Co. at the Orange, and Excelsior Hose, of Warwick, guests of Dikeman Hose Co., at the Occidental.

The places of business and private residences are profusely decorated. The professional decorators failed to materialize, consequently the decorations are the work of home artists. Nevertheless they are very handsome and elaborate. The visitors are a well drilled and handsomely uniformed lot of men. Several companies gave exhibitions of fancy drilling, this morning. The maneuvers of the Cataracts, although very intricate, are performed faultlessly and elicit unbounded admiration.

Visiting firemen will be admitted free at the Dikeman's ball at Music Hall, to-night.

How a New York Paper Thinks Farmers Get Water for Their Stock.

The New York Times, in an article on the city's milk supply, makes the astonishing statement that in Orange county the water supply is now largely obtained by tapping the canal, and farmers who cannot avail themselves of the water thus obtained are beginning to drive their herds to the adjoining rivers for water. We don't the grossest ignorance was ever displayed and more elaborate misinformation ever crowded into the same number of lines.

The Deciding Game of the Middletown Goshen series

Bowling Days Come Again—Mr. Nanny Back from Canada—A Missionary Box—Inspecting the Fire Houses—A Cake Walk.

From Our Regular Correspondent

—"The melancholy days have come," and with them come the bowling season, and the tired and weary pin boy is once more on active duty.

—Mr. Harrison W. Nanny, Dr. J. M. Ward and Mr. Nanny's bodyguard, Saul Cooper, returned, yesterday noon, from Canada. It will be remembered that Dr. Ward went to Canada, a few weeks ago, at a summons from Mr. Nanny, who was sick at his camp. We are pleased to state that Mr. Nanny returns in improved health.

—Miss Elizabeth Mould is expected to reach home from her Alaska trip, Friday or Saturday.

—To-morrow afternoon the ladies of the Presbyterian Church will pack a box of clothing for missionary purposes at the residence of Mr. J W. Corwin. Articles may be left there from 2 until 5 p. m.

—The quarters of the various fire companies were open for public inspection, last night, and a large number of people visited them. Everything was ship shape and in first class condition throughout the entire department.

—As a fitting climax to the festivities of the day Philip Walker and "Si" Hicks will give a cake walk in Purdy Hall, this evening. On the posters announcing the event it is stated that "all kinds" of refreshments will be served and that good order will be maintained.

—Mrs. D. Sturges, of Washington, D. C, who has spent the past month visiting relatives in Goshen, returned home, to-day.

IN ANCIENT GOSHEN.

Some Personal Notes—Suggested by a Wood Fire.

From a Special Correspondent

—Rev. William E. Maison and family have left the rectory and taken up their abode at the St. Elmo Hotel, where they will stay until they leave Goshen. Mr. Maison will officiate for the last time in St. James's Church on Sunday, Oct. 13th.

—Dr. H. H. Robinson, of this village, has been spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Herbert Budd, at her home in Pennsylvania

—A wood fire is certainly apt to encourage a reflective mood in the average person. People will sit about a coal fire and eat and laugh carelessly enough, but if the fire be of wood the mood of those present will gradually become more and more quiet until finally you will find that everyone has become very nearly absorbed in watching the blazing logs. Indeed those tiny tongues of flame have many stories of their own to tell, both of forest and home life, to which we cannot help but listen. One of the branches that is now burning for our comfort will perhaps tell us how it once sheltered a cozy nest; how its heavy foliage concealed the humble home from preying eyes while its little inmates grew and thrived and when they forsook it and the autumn winds signed and sobbed about it how dreary and lonely it seemed Another will whisper to us that it also formed part of a tree that grew beside a happy human habitation, whose story was but that of the nest repeated. At first all will be gay and lively and joyous and pleasant bustle, followed all too soon by change emptiness and desertion. Still another, that burns with a quiet, cheerful crackling and crackling, makes us think of pleasant October weather, sunny, but with just enough dampness in the air to be exhilarating. We hear a distant sound of pheasants drumming, and catch the far off echo of happy children laughter and a faint rustling as of dead leaves trodden under a crowd of little feet Others burn more fiercely and tell us of the strong north wind that tore at them and flung them to and fro until they seemed like giant arms tossed heavenward in an agony of supplication. Of all these things and many more does the wood fire speak to us, if we are but among those who have ears to hear, and, so having, do not close them. G H.

FATHER OF THE FAIR

COLONEL HEMPHILL ORIGINATED THE ATLANTA EXPOSITION IDEA.

Wanted to Kill the Hard Times and Succeeded—Opportunities For Educational and Industrial Development Open to the Colored Race—The Negro Exhibit.

Colonel William Arnold Hemphill, business manager of the Atlanta Constitution and of several other good institutions, is by universal testimony the father of the fair. This does not refer to the sex so described, but to the Cotton States and International exposition. He projected it, to use his own language, "to start a back fire against the incessant gabble about hard times." Colonel Hemphill is a very attractive looking gentleman, with gray side whiskers and winning manners, a light brown mustache and blue gray eyes and as neat as if he had just stepped from a furnishing department. Born in Athens, Ga., in 1842, he served in Longstreet's corps in Virginia, and when the unpleasantness terminated went to Atlanta, where he has been mayor, city councilor and president of the board of education and is head of the big daily, president of a bank and vice president of the exposition company. And, finally, whether his popular title indicates his actual rank in the war I don't know, for colonels are as plenty about here as in a pile of hickory nuts.

COLONEL WILLIAM A. HEMPHILL.

"As soon as the panic struck the country," said he, "I saw that a new era was coming, and I wanted Atlanta to be ready to meet it. I did not believe that things were so bad in the south as many people represented them, or rather I believed we could make them better soon by all pulling together, and, furthermore, I have an idea that the time for a city like this to start a big thing and spend a little extra money is just when others are giving up. Well, I mentioned the thing, and it went beyond my most sanguine expectations. It is wonderful how many people were eager for something to change the popular current of thought and talk. It seemed that times got better at once. Our people have had work. All you need do is to look around and you can see how building has gone on, and no sooner is a building done than some one is ready to take it. My first idea was, as I said, to stop the talk about hard times, but the business men took hold and soon ran it away beyond that. The leading idea with them is to open a freer trade with South America."

Colonel Hemphill suggested a plan to Mr. Clark Howell, who wrote a brief editorial for The Constitution of Dec. 14, 1893. The response was immediate. Interviews and communications came in rapid succession, and a citizens' meeting was called for Dec. 28 at the Chamber of Commerce. It was the largest and most enthusiastic ever held there. A committee of 20 was named to go to work at once, and on that committee were the makers of Atlanta.

"Our first idea," says Mr. Howell, "was to merely improve upon the Piedmont exposition, which has been held here at intervals for several years, but it soon ran far beyond that, for several of the southern states were deeply chagrined at their meager display at Chicago, and especially was there a deep sense of regret that the colored people had not been thoroughly represented there. Now go to their building on the grounds, and you will see that that feature alone will make it a marvelous success and worth coming far to see."

So I went to the grounds and found that the structure here on its artistic front the plain title "Negro Building," and nowhere about it is the euphemism of "colored." "It wouldn't do," said the gentleman in charge, with a roguish smile, "to use that word, for there will be many colored people here, such as Chinese, Japanese, Egyptians and Indians of Mexico and South America. We are the negroes of the United States, and we hope to convince our paler fellow citizens that we are doing something for the country." And doing something they certainly were, though unfortunately for my purpose it consisted chiefly of hammering and unpacking, for the general delay in getting the exposition into shape has here been supplemented by special delays in receiving the educational exhibits. One fact, however, was made manifest, which astonished me not a little—our colored people now have to their credit an even thousand inventions, nearly all of which have been patented, and the models of the most important have been shipped here from the Washington patent office.

It added to my astonishment to find that four of the inventions, all in the agricultural line, were by Hon. G. W. Murray, the only colored man in the Fifty-third congress, for I had not imagined that his mind ran that way. The managers tell me that many ingenious negroes are now toiling hard to invent a better cotton gin, for it is admitted that the one now in use does some injury to the fiber. The first patent to any of the race was awarded in 1845 to Joseph Hawkins of West Windsor, N. J. He was a practical cook, and the invention was a gridiron. It was valuable, too, and with subsequent improvements came into extensive use. Soon after a slave in Kentucky invented a machine for cleaning hemp, but the patent was taken out by his master, and even the name of the inventor is now unknown. Several of the latest inventions are for use in parlor and sleeping cars, as might be expected from the general employment of colored men there, and one, for excluding dust and cinders while admitting air, is thought by experts to be of great value. Another much spoken of is the gong signal chair, invented by Miss Miriam E. Benjamin. She was born in South Carolina and educated in Massachusetts and is now taking a medical course at Washington. By this device a patient in a hospital or one waiting in a railway station can call an attendant from an adjacent room without making any noise. The inventor claims that but half or a third as many attendants will be needed and the quiet and comfort of patients and guests greatly promoted. Mr. J. E. Johnson, the colored man in charge of these exhibits, is a special agent of the patent office.

The Negro building is 276 feet long, 112 feet wide and 70 feet high in the main central space, and at least two-thirds of the interior is taken up by educational institutions, such as the Hampton Normal and Agricultural, the Tuskeegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial and other similar schools all over the south. And right here, by the way, is the great opening for those philanthropists who wish to spend money for the good of the colored people. Enough has been done for education at present, but there are certain lines of manufacture for which the mixed race of the south is peculiarly fitted. There are preachers and schoolteachers enough, and at the other end of the line there is work enough for the common laborers. But between these two extremes there is now a large class for whom the immediate future looks very dark indeed.

There are tens of thousands of educated young colored men and women full of ambition and eager to do something for themselves and their race, but every avenue seems shut up. And they are fitted by nature for the finer kinds of work in silk and linen. That peculiar suppleness of fingers and taste in colors and fabrics, even that delicacy of touch, which marks the lighter colored people is exactly suited for the mills manufacturing in silk, linen and cotton. The philanthropist can spend his money and keep it, too—aye, make a profit on it. A notice over the door of such a mill that it is "for colored people exclusively" would offend no prejudice, and the south now has some 400,000 young men and women for whom this is the natural work.

But to return to the Negro building. The front is adorned with an immense relievo, which at first view strikes one as ludicrous. On the right is an immense medallion, with the head of Frederick Douglass, and on the left another, with that of a typical black woman of the plantation laborer class. It is far from pretty, but it is suggestive and true to life. Between is the cotton field, with cart, plow, mule team and negro driver. I observe that prominence is everywhere given to the full blooded negro and the laborer, though the managers are mistaken. Mr. Irvine Garland Penn, commissioner in charge of the entire negro exhibit, is principal of the colored schools of Lynchburg, Va., and one of the intellectual phenomena of the south. He is but 28 years old, and his progress must therefore be considered very remarkable. The matter of educational progress among the colored is something of a "chestnut" by this time, and yet those who have not made a study of it have no conception of how rapidly colleges and high schools have multiplied on every hand.

I traveled on several different trains on my way from Washington here, as I stopped a day or so at each place of importance, and I took special notice of the treatment of the colored people. I find that the Southern railway (Piedmont) makes no distinction whatever, and though there were colored passengers in every car I entered I heard not the slightest objection from anybody. I am told that some of the roads entering here provide separate cars. As a third or more of this city's people are colored, there will be ample hotel and boarding house accommodations, and in a very considerable section all the stores and shops are owned and run by colored people. As near as I can guess, about half the workers on the exposition grounds are colored, but the Negro building was built exclusively by colored mechanics and is in itself an interesting monument to their skill.

HEART DISEASE, like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system never gets better of its own accord, but Constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and Don't Know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows:

"I had heart disease for 23 years; my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time trying several physicians and remedies until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak and completely discouraged, until I lived propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 19 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I have'nt lost a day since. I am 56 years old, 6 ft. 4½ inches and weigh 250 lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."

Dyesville, Ohio. SILAS FARLEY.

STATE OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, Albany, August 1, 1895—Pursuant to the provisions of section one of article fourteen of the Constitution of the State of New York, and section seven of Chapter six hundred and eighty of the Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, as amended by Chapter eight hundred and ten of the Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment to article seven of the Constitution of the State of New York is referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the next general election of Senators in this State, to be held on the fifth day of November, eighteen hundred and ninety-five.

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Proposing an Amendment to Section Seven of Article Seven of the Constitution, relating to the Forest Preserve.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Resolved (if the assembly concur), That section seven of article seven of the constitution be amended, so as to read as follows:

Sec. 7. The lands of the State, now owned or hereafter acquired, constituting the forest preserve as now fixed by law, shall be forever kept as wild forest lands. Except as authorized by this section, they shall not be leased, sold or exchanged, to be taken by any corporation, public or private, nor shall the timber thereon be sold, removed or destroyed. The legislature may authorize the leasing for such term as it may by law fix, of a parcel of not more than five acres of land in the forest preserve to any one person for camp and cottage purposes. The legislature may also authorize the exchange of lands owned by the State situate outside the forest preserve for lands not owned by the State situate within the forest preserve. The legislature may also authorize the sale of lands belonging to the State situate outside the forest preserve, but the money so obtained shall not be used except for the purchase of land situate within the forest preserve, and which, when so purchased, shall become part of the forest preserve.

Sec. 2. Resolved (if the assembly concur), That the foregoing amendment be referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election of senators, and that in conformity to section one, article fourteen of the constitution, to be published for three months previous to the time of such election.

State of New York, in Senate. The foregoing resolution was duly passed, a majority of all the senators elected voting in favor thereof.

By order of the senate,
CHARLES T. SAXTON, President.

State of New York, in Assembly. The foregoing resolution was duly passed, a majority of all the members elected to the assembly voting in favor thereof.

By order of the assembly,
HAMILTON FISH, Speaker.

State of New York, Office of the Secretary of State, ss.: I have compared the preceding copy of concurrent resolution, proposing an amendment to article seven, section seven of the Constitution, with the original concurrent resolution on file in this office, and I do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom and of the whole thereof.

Given under my hand and the seal of office of the Secretary of State, at the City of Albany, this first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

JOHN PALMER,
Secretary of State.

The foregoing Concurrent Resolution is published once a week for three months next preceding the next general election in conformity to the aforesaid provisions, in two public newspapers in each county in this State representing respectively the two political parties polling the highest number of votes at the last general election, and in one additional newspaper in each county for every one hundred thousand people in such county as shown by the last preceding State Enumeration.

JOHN PALMER,
Secretary of State.

STATE OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, Albany, August 1, 1895. Pursuant to the provisions of section one of article fourteen of the Constitution of the State of New York, and section seven of Chapter six hundred and eighty of the Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, as amended by Chapter eight hundred and ten of the Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment to article two of the Constitution of the State of New York is referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the next general election of Senators in this State, to be held on the fifth day of November, eighteen hundred and ninety-five.

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Proposing an Amendment to Section One of Article Two of the Constitution, Relating to the Qualifications of Voters.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Resolved (if the senate concur), That section one of article two of the constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 1. Every citizen of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident for ninety days, and an inhabitant of this State one year next preceding an election, and for the last four months a resident of the county, and for the last thirty days a resident of the election district in which he may offer his vote, shall be entitled to vote at such election in the election district of which he shall at the time be a resident, and not elsewhere, for all officers that now are or hereafter may be elective by the people, and upon all questions which may be submitted to the vote of the people, provided that in time of war no elector in the actual military service of the State, or of the United States, in the army or navy thereof, shall be deprived of his vote by reason of his absence from such election district, and the legislature shall have power to provide the manner in which and the time and place at which such absent electors may vote, and for the return and canvass of their votes in the election districts in which they respectively reside.

Sec. 2. Resolved (if the senate concur), That the foregoing amendment be referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election of senators, and in conformity to section one, article fourteen of the constitution, to be published for three months previous to the time of such election.

State of New York, in Assembly, April 24, 1895. The foregoing resolution was duly passed.

By order of the assembly,
HAMILTON FISH, Speaker.

State of New York, in Senate, April 30, 1895. The foregoing resolution was duly passed.

By order of the senate,
CHARLES T. SAXTON, President.

State of New York, Office of the Secretary of State, ss.: I have compared the preceding copy of concurrent resolution, proposing an amendment to section one of article two of the Constitution, with the original concurrent resolution on file in this office, and I do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom and of the whole thereof.

Given under my hand and the seal of office of the Secretary of State, at the City of Albany, this first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

JOHN PALMER,
Secretary of State.

The foregoing Concurrent Resolution is published once a week for three months next preceding the next general election in conformity to the aforesaid provisions, in two public newspapers in each county in this State representing respectively the two political parties polling the highest number of votes at the last general election, and in one additional newspaper in each county for every one hundred thousand people in such county as shown by the last preceding State Enumeration.

JOHN PALMER,
Secretary of State.

STATE OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, Albany, August 1, 1895. Pursuant to the provisions of section seven, chapter six hundred and eighty, Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, as amended by chapter 810, Laws of 1895, notice is hereby given that the following proposition will be submitted to the people of the said State, for the purpose of voting thereon at the next general election in this State, to be held on the fifth day of November, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, at the said general election there is to be submitted to the people for the purpose of voting thereon, the following proposition, embodied in section one, of chapter seventy-nine, of the Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five:

"There shall be submitted to the people of this state at the general election to be held in November, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, the proposition, to be voted upon by the electors of this state, to issue bonds by the state to the amount not to exceed nine millions of dollars, which bonds shall be sold by the state, and the proceeds thereof paid into the state treasury and so much thereof as shall be necessary expended for the purpose of enlarging and improving the Erie canal, the Champlain canal and the Oswego canal, and the county clerks in the different counties in this state, and all other officers who are now or may hereafter be charged by law with furnishing ballots to the electors at the said general election, are hereby authorized and directed to cause to be furnished a sufficient quantity of ballots both for and against the proposition to authorize the issuing of the said bonds for, and the enlargement and improving of the Erie canal, the Champlain canal and the Oswego canal; the said ballots shall be printed as follows: "For the proposition to issue bonds for the improvement of the Erie canal, the Champlain canal and the Oswego canal," and "Against the proposition to issue bonds for the improvement of the Erie canal, the Champlain canal and the Oswego canal." The comptroller is hereby charged with the duty of selling said bonds to the highest bidder after advertising for a period of twenty consecutive days (Sundays excepted) in at least two daily newspapers in the city of New York, two daily newspapers in the city of Brooklyn, and two daily newspapers printed in the city of Albany, said advertisements to contain a provision to the effect that the comptroller, in his discretion, may reject all bids made in pursuance of said advertisements, and in the event of such rejection the comptroller is authorized to readvertise for bids as many times as may be necessary to effect a satisfactory sale."

State of New York, Office of the Secretary of State, ss.: I have compared the preceding copy of proposition embodied in section one, chapter seventy-nine, of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, with the original law on file in this office, and I do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom, and of the whole thereof. (Published pursuant to chapter six hundred and eighty, laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, as amended by chapter eight hundred and ten of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, in two public newspapers in each county, in said State, representing respectively the two political parties polling the highest number of votes at the last general election, and in one additional newspaper in each county for every one hundred thousand people in such county, as shown by the last preceding State enumeration.)

Given under my hand and seal of office of the Secretary of State, at the city of Albany, this first day of August, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

JOHN PALMER,
Secretary of State.

The following is the form of ballot to be used in voting on said proposition:

FOR

the proposition to issue bonds for the improvement of the Erie canal, the Champlain canal and the Oswego canal.

AGAINST

the proposition to issue bonds for the improvement of the Erie canal, the Champlain canal and the Oswego canal.

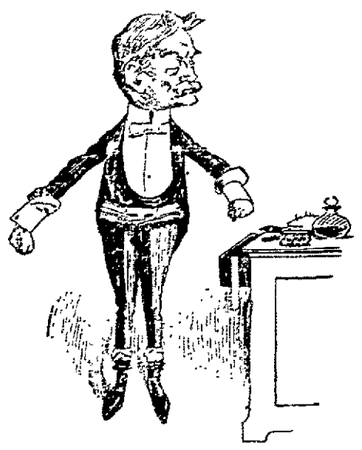
Who She Was.

"Now, Mr. Fisk," began the lawyer who conducted the cross examination, "is it not a fact that you harbor a female who goes by the name of Mrs. Fisk?" "Yes, sir." "Do you not support her?" "I do, sir." "Is she your legal wife?" "No, sir." The jurors scowled. "You will admit that, although you have never been married to her, she lives with you?" "Yes, sir." "That is all. You may step down." The legal light looked victoriously at the jury. "One moment, Mr. Fisk," said the opposing lawyer. "What relation exists between you and the lady referred to?" "She is my grandmother."—St. Louis Chronicle.

Pictorial Whist.



A SHORT SUIT.

—Life.

In the Country.

I am gradually becoming acquainted with country life. I have been here in Hayville little more than a week, but time works wonders. On my arrival I wanted my trunk carried about a block to my new home.

"Come hither, my good man," I said in lightest vein to a worthy looking fellow dressed in a pair of worn jeans, rawhide boots and a dirty flannel shirt. "I would a word with thee. Shoulder this trunk and take it to yonder house, and I'll give you more money for chewing tobacco and popcorn than you've had in a year." The worthy fellow toted my trunk over all right, and I gave him a quarter. The next day I saw him buying bank stock at an auction sale of the effects, real and personal, of a deceased millionaire. He cleaned out about a dozen other bidders by raising it up to 157. I made some inquiries and learned that he was worth over $500,000 himself. I concluded to go to the postoffice via our cow lot and crawl through the barbed wire fences except when assured that he was far away.

I went to what they call a "sidewalk social" last night. It is a function that has for its object the improvement of the sidewalks in the town. Every one pays a quarter to attend and a quarter to eat. You bring along your own food and eat that unless you swap jam and marmalade with some neighbor. I tried to get my wife to swap off some of her bread (it was very good for a first attempt), but she didn't succeed. After the social a committee of women called the "sidewalk committee" takes charge of the money, and the members fight over it for the rest of the year. By the time they are through fighting and have put a couple of new boards in front of the minister's house there is no money left, so it seems to be a sort of local Tammany.

There was an awfully pretty woman at the social. She was dressed in a gown that would have been a credit to the lamented Mr. Worth, who died, poor fellow, just before I wanted to order a couple of dozen dresses from him for my wife. She was a graduate of Vassar and knew everything. There wasn't anything she couldn't talk about, and she could play the piano with both hands. We got a-going on altruism, which is one of my hobbies. I used the horny handed village blacksmith for an object lesson. I explained at length what the world ought to do for poor devils like him. I showed her that life was nothing to such as he; that he was in his present social condition a mere unthinking machine, slaving for the benefit of a few, who, like myself, were brain workers. After we got home my wife told me that the Vassar graduate was the wife of the blacksmith. His shop fronts our cow lot, so I am not going to the postoffice by that route any more. I am going to send my wife.—Truth.

Only to Shop.

"Will you be my wife?"

She was very beautiful. Some estimated her beauty as high as $10,000,000.

"No," she answered. "I came abroad merely to shop and with no idea of making any purchases. Not today, thank you."

The titled aristocrat ground his teeth in rage.

He had ground his teeth at nothing else since the previous day at luncheon.—Detroit Tribune.

HYMENEAL.

Howell—Mapes.

The marriage of Miss Helen Mapes and Mr. Herbert J. Howell took place, last evening, at Maple Ridge Farm, the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Mapes, about three miles west of this city, in the presence of about one hundred guests.

The house and grounds were beautifully decorated and illuminated. The ceremony took place in the front parlor where a huge bank of palms and ferns had been tastefully arranged. The ceremony, which was with a ring, was performed by the Rev. Luther Littell, of Mount Hope. Mr. Littell also solemnized the marriage rites of the bride's parents nearly thirty years ago.

Miss Mabel Howell, of Newburgh, played the Lohengrin wedding march as the bridal party entered the parlor. First came the ushe , Mr. Dean Writer, the bridesmaid and groomsman, Miss Janie Masterson, of Howells, and Mr. Joseph Bakes, of Goshen; next came the maid of honor, Miss Daisy Lee, carrying the wedding ring on a heart shaped pillow of white silk and chiffon, followed by the pretty little flower girl, Miss Ina Bennett, of Goshen; then appeared the bride leaning on the groom's arm

The bride wore a very becoming gown of white silk, en train, trimmed with chiffon. A long bridal veil fastened by her engagement ring extended the length of the train. She carried white roses. Miss Masterson's costume was of white crepon, trimmed with ribbon and lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The maid of honor and flower girl wore gowns of white dotted Swiss, trimmed with lace and ribbons.

Immediately after the congratulations were extended to the newly wedded pair an elegantly prepared collation was served.

The handsome wedding gifts showered upon the bridal pair were an evidence of their popularity.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell were driven to this city where they took Erie train 7 for an extended trip west of indefinite length. On their return they will reside with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Howell, of Howells.

Among the guests were Under Sheriff Howell and wife and daughters, Misses Mabel and Alice, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar C. Howell, of Orange, N. J; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E Howell, of Johnstown, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Moore, of Otisville; Mr. Geo. S. Writer, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. L M. Writer, Mrs. L. M. Willis.

Roemer—Haffner.

A quiet home wedding occurred, last evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. Haffner, on New street. Goshen, when their daughter, Eve Isabel, was united in marriage to Mr. John Roemer, of White Plains, in the presence of the immediate family. Rev. William E. Maison performed the ceremony. The bride's sweet countenance appeared more than ever attractive in a wedding gown of white satin, her only ornament being a diamond pin, the gift of the groom. She carried a bunch of beautiful bride's roses.

Miss Esther Conkling, of Washingtonville, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Matthew Haffner, brother of the bride, acted as groomsman. Miss Conkling wore yellow silk and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Miss Lillian Haffner, sister of the bride, announced the wedding party by the beautiful strains of Mendelsohn's wedding march. The rooms were profusely decorated with handsome potted plants and cut flowers.

The groom, a former well known resident of Goshen, is a pharmacist by profession and a graduate of the N. Y. C. P He is a member of one of the oldest and best families of Fairmont. After receiving congratulations the family partook of an excellently prepared collation The happy couple then drove to Middletown, from whence they started on a wedding journey of an indefinite period Upon their return they will make their home in White Plains.

If the bright, beautiful wedding day upon which these young people plighted their troth is an indication that the sunshine of prosperity will follow them until the close of life, with its well spent years, it will be but the re echo of the heartfelt wishes of their many friends.

Proceeds of the Old Ladies Fair.

At the monthly meeting of the managers of the Orange County Home for Aged Women, held yesterday afternoon, a report was rendered of the receipts of the fair which was held at the Home, 41 South street, this city, on September 5th, which was very gratifying.

The net receipts were $183 42 Of this amount $203 was received from articles sold in Goshen previous to to the fair.

In Your Blood.

Is the cause of that tired, languid feeling which afflicts you at this season. The blood is impure and has become thin and poor. That is why you have no strength, no appetite, cannot sleep. Purify your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will give you an appetite, tone your stomach, and invigorate your nerves.

PLEASED WITH THE STATE HOSPITAL

Secretary of State Palmer's Unexpected Visit—Warm Praise for the Hospital Managers.

Secretary of State John Palmer, Past Commander in Chief of the National Commandery of the Grand Army of the Republic, arrived in this city, yesterday, to be present at the re-union of the soldiers and sailors of Orange county. The Secretary was one day in advance of the event owing to a misunderstanding of his private secretary, who had noted Oct. 2nd for his visit to this city.

Having the day to himself, he drove to the State Hospital, where he was cordially welcomed by Superintendent Dr. S. H. Talcott.

The gentlemen had never met, but it took but a few moments to recognize in each other kindred spirits and become friends.

Secretary Palmer made a tour of inspection of the grounds and buildings and expressed himself as greatly surprised and highly pleased with the homelike air and evident excellent good management of the institution.

He spoke of official visits he had made to other institutions where due notice of the visits had been given the authorities, and "things spruced up" for the visitors. He said that everything here was in such splendid condition that it seemed as though the superintendent had been advised of his coming No greater words of praise could be bestowed upon the authorities in charge of the hospital.

At the invitation of Dr. Talcott, Secretary Palmer consented to become his guest for the night. This afternoon he delivered an address to the veterans at Maennerchor Park.

IT WAS CREAMERY MILK.

But Was in Assistant Dairy Commissioner Tuthill's Cans.

Assistant Dairy Commissioner F. D. Tuthill says in reference to the milk said to have been shipped from his farm, which was condemned in New York, recently, that the milk was not shipped by him, but by H. T. Stage, of the Washingtonville creamery, to whom he has sold milk from April 1st, 1892, to Sept. 15th, 1895 Under an agreement with Mr. Stage he allowed him to use his cans and the fact that Mr. Tuthill's name was on the cans probably led to the publication of the story that he had shipped the milk.

Never Worked in Eighty-one Years.

John Lowery, who died at the home of his sister in Oxford, Chenango county, last week, at the age of eighty-one years, enjoyed the unique distinction of never having done a day's work. He began tramping when eleven years old and did not return home for many years. He knew every one in a large section of country and was always given food when he came to a house, but if asked to work took an abrupt departure and did not return in weeks.

Two Very Strict Economists

Two pieces of strict economy have come to our notice lately. One is that of a widow who takes one of our city dailies, and, having read it, trades it to her milkman the next morning for a pint of milk. The other is that of a man who pays fifteen cents per week for a New York daily and turns it over to his neighbor the next day, the latter paying five cents per week for his twenty-four hour old paper.
